People to People is a peer-to-peer education program created by the American Red Cross, in collaboration with KCFree and Midwest AIDS Training and Education Center of Missouri (MATEC-MO), to support individuals living with HIV and AIDS.

Become a Peer Educator

We seek Peer Educators who are motivated to help people living with HIV/AIDS in our community to improve their health through education, empowerment and advocacy.

As a Peer Educator, you will receive free training on HIV transmission, disease progression, and treatment adherence.

Once you have the facts, you'll be able to apply your personal experiences, knowledge and training to help family, friends, and other HIV positive individuals lead healthier lives.

Join more than 45,000 people who have already received American Red Cross HIV/AIDS training—become a People to People Peer Educator.
